

Local Anaesthetic

---

At your next appointment it is planned to carry out treatment under local anaesthetic (ie, an injection in your mouth).

Please have something to eat before attending.

If you feel anxious about this procedure it is a good idea to have a friend accompany you.

Please inform the Surgeon of any change in your health or medical care since your last visit.